

Name: _____

Discovery Farm is located in the south east corner of South Wing B. Visit the learning stations at the entrance before heading in to see the farm animals! The exhibits and slide shows will help you answer these questions...

1. Farm animals raised for meat also provide materials for many products we use everyday—leather for shoes, hair for paintbrushes, wool for baseballs, and much more. These additional uses are called _____-products.
2. What's Kentucky's ranking in beef cattle production? # _____ in the nation
3. Animals with four stomach compartments that allow them to digest grasses and forage are called ruminants. Which one of these Discovery Farm animals is NOT a ruminant? (circle the answer) sheep      llama      cattle      pig
4. How much milk does the average dairy cow produce each year? _____ gallons
5. How many dairy cattle are raised in Kentucky? _____
6. A baby llama is called a _____.
7. Are there more goats raised for meat or for dairy in Kentucky? (circle the answer)    meat    dairy
8. How long have hogs been raised for meat? _____ years
9. Removing the fleece from a sheep is called _____.
10. Sheep provide this fiber, the most widely used animal fiber in the world: _____.
11. Chickens raised for eggs are called _____.
12. The most common meat eaten in America today is _____.
13. The #1 and #2 agricultural commodities in Kentucky are: #1 _____,
#2 _____.
14. Where is the World's Championship Horse Show held? _____
15. How many piglets does the Discovery Farm sow have? _____