

Name: _____

Discovery Farm is located in the south east corner of South Wing B. Visit the learning stations at the entrance before heading in to see the farm animals! The exhibits and slide shows will help you answer these questions...

1. Farm animals raised for meat also provide materials for many products we use everyday—leather for shoes, hair for paintbrushes, wool for baseballs, and much more. These additional uses are called by-products.
2. What's Kentucky's ranking in beef cattle production? # 8 in the nation
3. Animals with four stomach compartments that allow them to digest grasses and forage are called ruminants. Which one of these Discovery Farm animals is NOT a ruminant? (circle the answer) sheep llama cattle pig
4. How much milk does the average dairy cow produce each year? 1,700-2,400 gallons
5. How many dairy cattle are raised in Kentucky? About 90,000
6. A baby llama is called a cria.
7. Are there more goats raised for meat or for dairy in Kentucky? (circle the answer) meat dairy
8. How long have hogs been raised for meat? nearly 10,000 years
9. Removing the fleece from a sheep is called shearing.
10. Sheep provide this fiber, the most widely used animal fiber in the world: wool.
11. Chickens raised for eggs are called layers.
12. The most common meat eaten in America today is chicken.
13. The #1 and #2 agricultural commodities in Kentucky are: #1 horses and mules, #2 broilers.
14. Where is the World's Championship Horse Show held? at the Kentucky State Fair
15. How many piglets does the Discovery Farm sow have? _____